

Become an Institutional member today to support science in Ohio!

The Ohio Academy of Science (OAS) has been supporting science and science education in Ohio since 1891. Please join us in keeping Ohio a top state for scientific industry and education. OAS is a membership-based, volunteer-driven, not-for-profit organization.

The Academy is the leading organization in Ohio to foster curiosity, discovery, and innovation and to unite all who value education, science, engineering, technology, or their applications to benefit society. Our members are as diverse as the science taking place in Ohio, and our programs support science from pre-college and college students through scientific professionals.

Benefits to the sponsoring institution include:

- 25% off an advertisement in the State Science Day program
- Placement of the institutions-linked logo on the OAS website
- Advertisement of the institution's logo in all printed OAS publications, including but not limited to the OAS Annual Report and The Ohio Journal of Science

Benefits to faculty, staff, and students include:

- All faculty, staff, and students can join the OAS as individual members at no charge
- Members can publish in The Ohio Journal of Science with no page charges or fees
- OAS members are given a voice in science advocacy and the opportunity to lead the OAS as an officer or trustee
- Undergraduate research award & Scholarship opportunities
- Service opportunities as volunteers, judges, and mentors
