Julio Montanez, Ph.D. is an Affiliated External Scholar in the Institute for Social and Behavioral Science at the University of Central Florida, as well as a former Adjunct Instructor at Eastern Florida State College. Dr. Montanez's research is located at the intersection of domestic/family/intimate partner violence, social inequalities, quantitative and qualitative methods, and legal studies. His works can be found published in Crime & Delinquency, Hypothesis: Research Journal for Health Information Professionals, Journal of Applied Disciplines, Journal of Interpersonal Violence, Journal of Legal Research Methodology, Marquette Benefits & Social Welfare Law Review, Oxford Research Encyclopedia of Criminology and Criminal Justice, Routledge Handbook of Wellbeing and Wellness in Criminal Justice, Springer Encyclopedia of Domestic Violence, Stigma and Health, Teaching Online Pedagogical Repository, Teaching Resources and Innovations Library for Sociology, Theory in Action, and Violence Against Women.