

Brigid Moran Biography

Brigid Moran serves as an independent contractor and copyeditor with a broad interest in science. She has served a variety of scientific institutions including the Alliance of Crop, Soil, and Environmental Science Societies, The Science and Technology Policy Academy, RKO Consulting, and SciTech Forefront. She is passionate about clear and effective communication in scientific publications. Brigid holds a strong background in scientific outreach and communication, ensuring that technical research is conveyed accurately to diverse audiences. She is dedicated to maintaining the integrity of scientific writing while refining its clarity for broader impact. Brigid has a bachelor's degree in Political Science with a minor in Philosophy from St. Norbert College. She spent 6 months in a domestic exchange program at American University in Washington D.C. where she received her concentration in Sustainable and Professional Development.